DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 2 is rejected, insofar as understood, under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Weber et al. (U.S. Patent 5,464,228).

Weber et al. discloses a method of controlling radial pressures exerted between a bell (1) and a spigot(3) in a joint comprising the steps of placing a segment within the bell, and rotating a segment against a fulcrum (50) on the interior of the bell such that a radially inward portion of the segment rotates in the axially inward direction, increasing radial forces between the bell and the spigot primarily by rotating the segment about a different axis than the fulcrum, and muring a portion of the segment between two surfaces (Figs. 6 and 7) of the bell, whereby, further rotation of the segment is arrested (Figs 1,2,6-8).

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
